- b. A 2/3 majority is defined when the number of yeas outnumbers the number of nays by a 2 to 1 ratio with 2/3 of the present voting members not abstaining.

D. Eligible Voters

- a. All members of the Council in good standing except the Student Body President can vote;
 - i. In the case of a tie, the Student Body President shall cast the deciding vote;
- b. Members are expected to abide by the conflict of interest policy.

E. Conflict of Interest

- a. Conflicts are intended to be issues that would cause an individual to act, or give the appearance of acting, in a manner that does not put the interests of the Council and its constituents first.
- b. It is the responsibility of the individuals on the council to disclose any connection they believe may present a conflict prior to any discussion or vote;
- c. Recusal of Self
 - i. Those who have a conflict are encouraged to recuse themselves from the vote;
 - ii. A majority vote of the council can force a member of the council to recuse themselves from a vote;
 - iii. Quorum, if met before recusal, is not broken by recusal.
- d. Post-Vote Disclosure
 - i. Should an existing conflict of interest be discovered after a vote has occurred, the Council may motion for a revote;
 - ii. The member(s) in question will be excused from the ensuing discussion, and the re-vote will be approved by a majority vote of the Council;
 - iii. If a re-vote is taken, the member(s) with the conflict is automatically recused.
- e. Failure to Disclose
 - i. Should the Council determine that a member has failed to disclose a conflict relevant to the proceedings of the Council, a motion for that member to leave the room may occur;
 - ii. The Council will then discuss and vote on how to proceed with regards to the individual.

F. Reconsiderations

- a. A motion to reconsider can only be made by a member who voted with the prevailing side and must be seconded by another member who also voted with the prevailing side.
- b. A motion to reconsider can only be made within twenty-four hours of the decision to be reconsidered.
- c. A motion to be reconsidered will be passed given a majority vote.

Section III: Filling Vacancies and Elections

A. Election Procedures

- a. Council elections shall be run independently by the Columbia Elections Commission;
 - i. The Council shall approve of the engineering representatives on the Election Board by a majority vote.
 - b. Columbia Elections Commission
 - i. Membership
 - 1. The Columbia Elections Commission shall include three members of Council who are members of the graduating class during the two next cycles (Fall and Spring) of elections.
 - 2. The three appointed members shall serve as voting members of the Columbia Elections Commission.
 - 3. Membership commences immediately after appointment and shall last for a full calendar year.
 - 4. Membership responsibilities are detailed in the Columbia Elections Commission Constitution.
 - ii. Appointment
 - 1. A meeting of the members of Council who are members of the graduating class during the next two cycles of elections shall be held after elections in the Spring Semester to determine membership appointment for the following year.
- B. Appointment Procedures in the Event of a Vacancy
- a. At-Large Representative Vacancies
 - i. If an At-Large Representative vacancy occurs, the Council shall appoint an interim replacement for the position from the undergraduate engineering student body;
 - 1. This interim representative shall serve until a general election run by the Columbia Elections Commission takes place.
 - ii. The Executive Board must initiate appointment procedures upon vacancies within two weeks of the creation of that vacancy
 - 1. If a general election is to take place within 31 days of the vacancy, the position may remain vacant;
 - 2. The chair of the standing committee on which the representative sits is responsible for leading the appointment process;
 - 3. The aforementioned council member is responsible for assembling a committee to interview potential appointees; this committee shall at least be composed of one current at-large representative, one executive board member, and one class council member;
 - 4. The aforementioned interview committee shall recommend the new appointee(s) to the Executive Board within three weeks of the initiation of the appointment process;
 - 5. The Executive Board shall appoint the new at-large representative(s) within one week of receiving the recommendation(s);
 - 6. Should the council be unable to fill the vacancy after 31 days of publicizing the position, the position will be closed and reopened at the start of the following semester;

7. If a general election is to take place before the start of the next semester, the position shall be made available to potential candidates.
- b. Vice President of Council Vacancies
 - i. The council will open applications for the Vice President of the Council, Interim position, first to the vacant office's standing committee;
 1. Should no one from the vacant office's standing committee apply to fill the position within one week, it shall be deemed necessary to open the application to the council;
 2. Should no one from the council apply to fill the position in one week, it shall be deemed necessary to open the application to the engineering undergraduate student body.
 - ii. Any applicant to the vacant office shall be interviewed by the council and appointed by a majority vote if they are the only applicant, and by plurality vote if they are one of multiple applicants.
 - c. Class Council Vacancies
 - i. Class President vacancies shall be filled by the current Class Vice President;
 - ii. If the Class Vice President declines, or if any other class council member position is vacant, the remaining class council forms a committee with two members of the Executive Board to interview and appoint a new member.
 1. Majority vote of the committee will determine appointment;
 - iii. In the event that the majority or all Class Council members resign, there will be a new election for the Class for which the Columbia Elections Commission will be responsible.
 - d. University Senator Vacancy
 - i. If the position of University Senator is unfilled either due to resignation, impeachment, or lack of candidates, the position shall remain vacant until the next general election as organized by the Columbia Elections Commission.
 - ii. If the position remains vacant for two general elections, the position may be filled per the By-Laws, Statutes, and Rules of the Columbia University Senate.
 - e. The Student Body President Interim Succession
 - i. In the event that the Student Body President is unable to perform their duties, the following steps are to be taken:
 - ii. The Vice President of Policy will succeed the Student Body President and assume the role.
 - iii. If the Vice President of Policy is unable to assume the role, the Executive Board member who has been on the ESC for the longest period of time will take on the duties.
 - iv. If multiple members of the Executive Board satisfy the previous requirement, the member who held the higher position on Council the previous year will take on the role.
 - v. If multiple members of the Executive Board satisfy the previous two requirements, succession shall be determined by a coin toss.
 - f. All other position vacancies shall be filled on an interim basis by a majority vote of the entire Council membership.

Section IV: Formal Review and Impeachment

A. Formal Review

- a. The Executive Board is responsible for enforcing the Constitution and ensuring member accountability;
- b. The Executive Board is expected to exercise proper judgment before calling a member for formal review;
- c. Any of the following conduct may trigger a meeting with two members of the Executive Board for formal review
 - i. Greater than two unexcused⁵ absences from a general body meeting throughout the calendar year;
 1. Being late to a meeting is defined as arriving after the Executive Board has opened the meeting.
 2. Three late counts are equal to an absence.
 3. Based on points earned through volunteering for ESC events, the council member can “gain” attendance points back after the formal review. Volunteering for one event equals excusing an absence.
 - ii. Greater than two unexcused absences from a required Committee Meeting throughout the calendar year;
 1. The Vice President of each committee will determine which events constitute a required Committee Meeting.
 - iii. An abuse of membership privileges;

 - v. Acting in a manner which is willfully against the interests of the Council, the student body, and/or Columbia Engineering.
- d. Formal review will include a discussion with the involved member and a formation of a plan to avoid repetition of unwanted behavior;
- e. After formal review, at the discretion of the Executive Board, the Council member can be deemed to be ‘not in good standing’⁶ for a period of time
 - i. The Council member can restore their good standing through specific actions or after a certain amount of elapsed time, as determined by the Executive Board
- f. Should the formal review seem unsuccessful or the Council member continues to act in any of the above conduct while in bad standing, the Executive Board will discuss how to proceed.

B. Impeachment⁷ and Removal

- a. Grounds for impeachment include any conduct that could result in a formal review;
- b. Any member may motion for the impeachment of another member;
 - i. The impeached member must be informed of the motion for impeachment.
 - ii. Any non-Executive Board member against whom a motion is being made

⁵ An unexcused absence is defined by the discretion of the Executive Board or a late arrival after the half-point of the meeting (greater than 30 minutes)

⁶ Not being in good standing means the Council member cannot vote, chaperone events, or represent ESC in functions.

⁷ Impeachment – To charge and to call to account a member of the council for having committed an act which is willfully against the interests of the Engineering Student Council, CE, or that of their Council role. Debate and voting by the Council after impeaching a member can lead to their dismissal from the Council

- must be under formal review first.
 - iii. The member making the motion for impeachment must present the constitutional section(s) that the impeached member has violated while making the motion.
- c. A special committee, made up one member from each of the four Class Councils, one member from the Executive Board, and one other member of the Council, will be set up to review the impeachment;
 - i. They will present the case to the Council at least one week after the impeached member is informed.
 - ii. The committee will request testimonies from the General Body and any other relevant parties with a submission deadline of 48 hours after the impeached member is informed.
 - iii. The committee will request testimony from the impeached member after sending an anonymized compilation of the allegations submitted by the other members and/or parties to the impeached member.
 - iv. The committee will review the testimonies from all parties and recommend whether each allegation listed is considered to be a violation of the Constitution.
 - v. The committee will determine these recommendations and present them to the council at the end of the hearing for the impeached member, before voting procedure takes place.
- d. Removal of an impeached member from the Council shall be by a 2/3 majority vote
 - i. The vote will be closed and tallied by the Student Body President and Vice President, Policy of the Council;
 - ii. If the vote is to remove one or both of them, it shall be tallied by the Senior Class Council President and Vice President.

Article VI: Amendments

A. Constitutional Amendments

- a. Any elected member of the Council may propose a constitutional amendment as deemed necessary.
- b. One week after the amendment is proposed to the Council, the Council shall hold a majority vote to decide whether or not to entertain the proposal.
- c. If the proposal is entertained, this Constitution may be amended by a 2/3 majority vote.
- d. Approved amendments shall take effect at the start of the next semester.
 - i. If the vote is unanimously in favor of the amendment, the amendment shall take effect immediately.

B. Amendments addressing clerical changes in the constitution

- a. Any errors (limited to spelling and grammatical) in the Constitution or Bylaws may be changed without constitutional review.
- b. If any governing boards, student councils, or other governing bodies addressed by name in the ESC Constitution or Bylaws receive a name change, their name may be changed within the ESC Constitution without constitutional review.
- c. Any inconsistencies that result from constitutional changes that occurred in the - previous constitutional review can be fixed without a constitutional amendment.

- d. Any such changes to the Constitution or Bylaws must be submitted to approval by the Executive Board.
- C. Election Bylaws
 - a. The Election Bylaws are amended by the same process as the Constitution
 - b. Any member of the Council may propose an amendment to the Elections Bylaws
 - i. Members considering changes are highly encouraged to first discuss the changes with a member of the Columbia Elections Commission.
- D. Review
 - a. It is the responsibility of the Vice President, Policy to bring forth the Bylaws for review.
 - b. If necessary, a committee shall be formed to write any proposed changes.

Article VII: Transition Period

- A. After the transition meeting, or the last Council meeting of the academic year, current Council members are still in term and expected to fulfill their duties until Commencement
 - a. New Council members can assist in initiatives and attend emergency meetings but do not hold voting power
- B. In the case of extenuating circumstances, outgoing Council members can ask to be replaced by their incoming Council member and have their duties taken over, upon review by the Executive Board

Article IX: Statements

A statement is a letter released to the public on behalf of ESC, or a subsection of ESC, that clearly communicates a decision or affirms a stance. They should only be posted when absolutely necessary and after careful consideration.

Section I: Process

- A. Executive Board Statements
 - a. Statements must have unanimous agreement between all Executive Board members
- B. Entire Council Statements
 - a. Statements must have proper discussion and input from multiple Council members
 - b. Statements require a 2/3 majority vote by the entire Council
- C. Joint Council Statements
 - a. Once the Executive Board or entire Council votes and agrees to sign onto a statement, it cannot be modified by another Council without a new vote

Section II: Content

- A. Language cannot break any of the University's non-discrimination rules
- B. Purpose of the statement must align with the Council's mission and/or relevant to

Council affairs

- a. An exception can be made when statements pertain to an urgent matter impacting the entire SEAS student body

Section III: Outside Media

- A. In the special circumstance when ESC is releasing a statement to a national/international publication on behalf of the entire Council, there must be extra measures taken
 - a. After the initial draft, all Council members should review it and pose suggestions/concerns for edits to the President
 - b. The President relays the feedback to the authors of the statement and an updated statement is then brought forth to the council for an initial vote
 - c. If the vote reaches a 2/3 majority, the statement can be signed by Council
 - d. If the vote reaches a simple majority but not 2/3 majority, it is brought back to discussion and further edits
 - i. It can be presented for a vote one more time, but if it does not reach 2/3 majority then, it cannot be released on behalf of the Council
